WEEK 1 | GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

CONNECT

What is your favorite memory from your childhood? Why?

CONSIDER

What was encouraging or challenging from the sermon and/or daily devotions this week?

CHRIST

Entrusted: Generation to Generation

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Psalm 90:12

This psalm and prayer helps us remember to make each day count personally and with our family.

What are some actions steps we can take to accomplish this in our life and family?

Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9 as a group.

Why do you think the Jewish people view this section of Scripture as the “road map to live life and do family well”?

“Love God and do the right thing.” – John Ortberg

Why is this such good advice?

Sometimes “busy people can be broken people” and “busy families can be broken families.”

How do these phrases apply to your life and family right now?

How would you answer these three questions Jim Burns asked in the message:

- Do I like the person I am becoming?
- Is my heart for God growing or shrinking?
- Am I only giving my family my emotional scraps?

God has entrusted all of us with our family.

What does that mean for you?

CALLING

The definition of family has truly changed over the years. Family can be blended, family can include our friends, family can be just our brothers and sisters in Christ, and family can be our bloodline. No matter what category you fall under, there is family around you.

What do you feel God is asking you to do with the family with which He has entrusted you?

Daily Devotions

Spend 15 minutes each day with Northside devotions. Text DEVO to 81212 or use the Study tab in Northside's mobile app for daily devotions.

Memorize

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

Psalms 139:13-14
